

Grading

The HMS Physical Education department uses a variety of formal and informal assessments through various approaches in an attempt to meet the needs of our learners. HMS PE targets the cognitive, affective, and psychomotor domains to ensure a well-balanced program.

Most days in physical education are worth 10 total points. 10-point days typically consist of grading in the *following areas:

Prepared for class
 Class/activity rules
 Sportsmanship
 Team work
 Participation

Possible point deductions are as follows:

Prepared for class	Class/Activity Rules	Sportsmanship
-No PE shirt (top)	-Not following “activity specific” rules	-Not treating other participants with respect
-No PE shorts (bottom)	-Disrespecting/misuse of equipment or facility	-Not treating competing opponents with respect
-Not having essential materials	-Not adhering to classroom safety procedures	-Taunting or excessive celebrating in a disrespectful manner
-Not having previously distributed materials	-Not participating in the activity as directed	-Use of inappropriate language, comments, or gestures towards participants/opponents

Team Work	Participation
-Not participating in a “team work” type activity as directed	-Not participating in the activity as directed
-Not including other participants as directed in the activity	-Not putting forth a personal best effort as demonstrated in other activities
-Not treating teammates with respect	-Not having proper footwear
-Use of inappropriate language, comments, or gestures toward teammates	-Not beginning/participating in activities in a timely manner

Other possible assessments include (but are not limited to):

- Skill Testing
- Quizzes or Tests
- Accurate Record Keeping
- Written Assignments
- Research Assignments

*Values for categories are subject to change depending on the activities each day.
